

APPRECIATION

The member of the 4th Company,
Brigade of Guards in America, LTD

Express their most sincere appreciation to M^r. Linnea Ba^r for her generosity in sharing the fruit of her many years of research into the service of the Brigade of Guards during the era of the American War of Independence. We also thank the late Bill Burke, who, with Linnea, did the vast majority of primary research that made this work possible.

Many other< contributed to the information contained herein: Charle< Carpenter of the recreated 3d Regiment of Foot Guard<, Tim Thompson of the Recreated Cold}ream Guard<, Henry Cooke - uniform researcher, many, many friend< who helped interpret the drill and uniform< of the era. To all who helped dire{ly or indire{ly, our heartfelt thank<!