

COMPANY MISSION STATEMENT

The 4th Company, Brigade of Guards in America, LTD, will encourage a wider public awareness and understanding of the roots, causes, and the events therein of the American Revolution and its impact upon modern society today. This objective will be accomplished by:

- Publishing a newsletter which contains research on the period, and provides a means whereby the reader can do further research on the subject;
- Giving talks, lectures, and demonstrations, usually at historic sites, while dressed in authentic clothing and equipment and imitating mannerisms and styles of the period;
- Conducting living history weekends to which the public is invited and encouraged to attend;
- Appearing in public in period clothing eliciting and encouraging further inquiry and exploration of the past; and
- Supporting educational research on the life and conditions of people in Colonial America.

